1

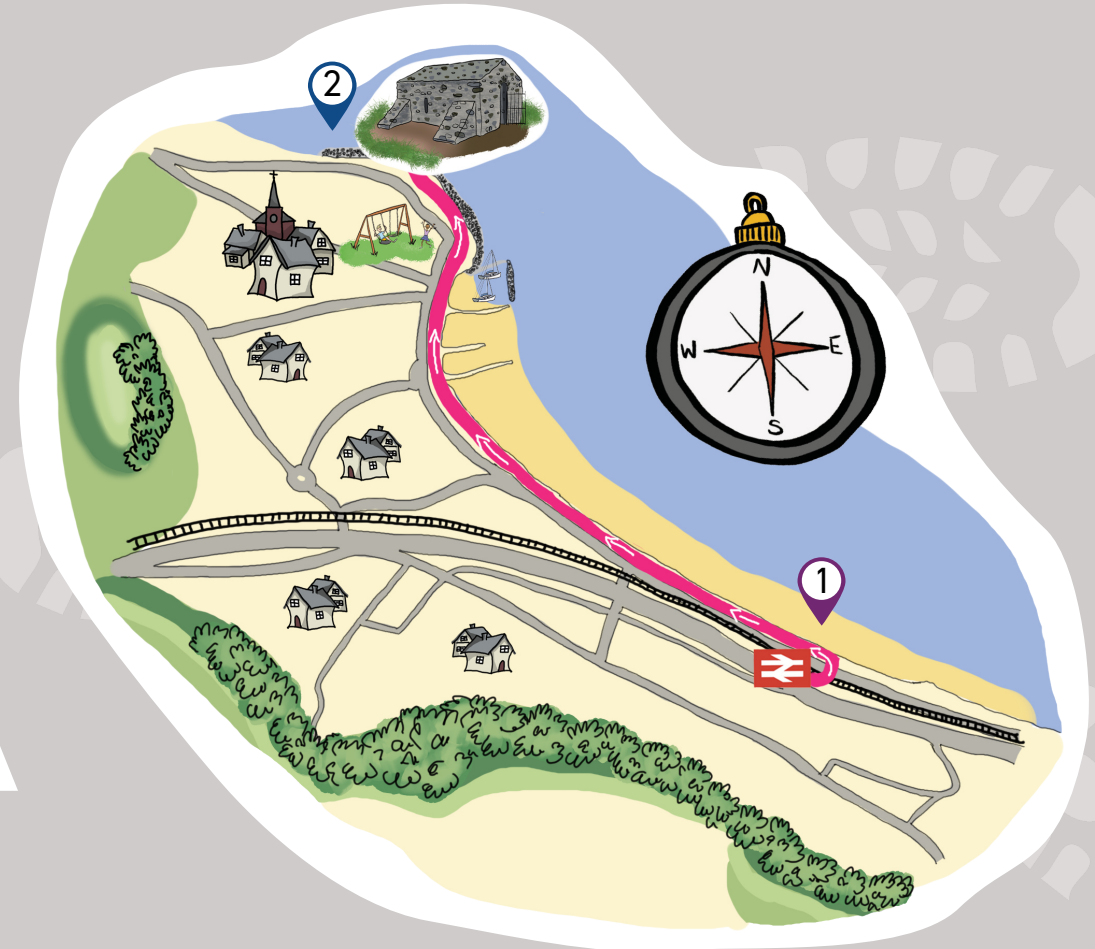

Exit the station and turn left down the footpath and under the railway bridge. You are immediately on the sea front.

2

Turn left and follow the coast (sea on your right) to Rhos on Sea where you can find shops, cafés and a playground. Just after the main shops and cafés you will find tiny St Trillo's Chapel on the sea front. Well worth a look it has seats for just six people and the alter is built over a natural spring thought to be an ancient holy well.

3

Return by the same route.
